

Selected Exhibitions/Active Work

Formerly, vanGoodman Photography

- 2023 - Event Archivist for Life of Hope (Brooklyn Headquarters), starting Year 2021 to Present
- 2023 - Event Photographer, creative aspect and schedule manager, Public Relations for Alegba Jahyile of “Alegba and Friends”, starting Spring 2020 to Present
- 2023 - Event Archivist for Haiti Cultural Exchange/Regine Roumain (CEO), starting Year 2014 to Present
- 2023 - Event Photographer for Nadege Fleurimond, Life Coach & Entrepreneur, starting Year 2009 to present
- 2022- Collaborative exhibition featuring 27 artists of Haitian descent and all artwork shown at the French Consulate General (NY, NY) to benefit The Haitian Roundtable.
- 2021 – Photographer for launch of website OnePieceWear/Rita Mister (Founder).
- 2018 - Exhibiting artist auctioning pieces at celebration of Haitian creativity to benefit the “Pazapa Center for Children with Disabilities”, Siloé Project (Vinyl Room/The Soho House)
- 2015 - Brooklyn Music School Resident Photographer, Years 2008 through 2015
- 2009 - Armory Art VIP event, “The Girls from Kyoto and other Japanese Contemporary Masters” presentation at the St. Regis Residences by Osaka’s Mem, Inc. and New York private dealer Nancy Seltzer
- 2008 - Grace Institute Gallery, Collective (juried) exhibition; One of 4 artists on Panel discussion
- 2007 - Energy Gallery, Collective Exhibition
- 2007 - PhotoManhattan, Collective Exhibition

Publications

- 2022 – “RTV’s Community Generosity Shines Bright” by Curtis Flowers and Ashley Cruce, Brooklyn Queens Land Trust (16Dec2022)

- 2022 – “Behind Life of Hope, a Wish to Create Room for Fellow Immigrants on the American Journey” by Same Bojarski, Haitian Times (10May2022)
- 2021 – “Music and Dance Return With the Third Annual Festival Minokan at Wyckoff House Museum” by Susan De Vries, Brownstoner.com (25Aug2021)
- 2020 - WNYC.com – “All of It” with Alison Stewart, Interview with Alegba Jayhile and Mark Kraszewski of “Alegba and Friends”
- 2019 – “6 Pieces of Baggage I Believe We Should Unload As We Fly Into 2020” by Nadege Fleurimond, Blavity.com (12Dec2019)
- 2019 - “Wyckoff Museum Pays Tribute to Haitian Spirituality with Annual Festival” by Andrea Leonhardt, BKReader (30Aug2019)
- 2019 - “East Flatbush - Celebrating The Traditions Of Haitian Lakou Soukri”, Courtesy of Wyckoff House Museum, Canarsie Courier
- 2018 - “Program 1 of Haiti Cultural Exchange’s “Selebrasyon” was thought-provoking and beautiful” by Bonnie Rosenstock, ExploreDance.com
- 2018 - “Cremas Is Haiti’s Beloved Holiday Beverage That You Should Drink All Season” by Vonnie Williams, Food&Wine Magazine
- 2015 - “Haiti Uncovered: Culinary Coffee Table Book is Creole-licious!” by Audrey J Bernard, Lifestyles Editor, NewYorkBeacon.net
- 2015 – “Parade Magazine’s Community Table: Learn About Haitian Cuisine With This Refreshing Seafood Salad” by Sanura Weathers, Interview with Nadege Fleurimond, My Life Runs On Food (Food Blog) (20July2015)
- 2014 - “Haiti Uncovered: A Regional Adventure into the Art of Haitian Cuisine” by Nadege Fleurimond, Hardcover Coffee Table Book
- 2013 - “CVG: Beyond Expectations”, Art and Literary Blog of Michèle-Jessica (M.J.) Fièvre, The Whimsical Project
- 2012 - “Hispanic Heritage Celebrations” by Anne Mancuso, The New York Times, Spare Times Section (16October2012)
- 2009 - Brooklyn Music School Marketing Brochure for distribution
- 2009 - Week’s Editor’s Picks, Photo: “Solo Dance” (Brooklyn, NY), Smithsonian.com
- 2008 - “Land of Sugarplums Is the Bread and Butter of the Holiday Season”, by Roslyn Sulcas, The New York Times (15Dec2008)

2008 - "It's Nut-rageous!", by Sarah Portlock, The Brooklyn Paper (12Dec2008)

Notables

2022 – Event Archivist for Fanmi Asòtò for Annual Presentations of “Lakous” at the Wyckoff Museum (Brooklyn, NY):

- Lakou Souvnans (July2018)
- Lakou Soukri (Aug2019)
- Petwo Rites (Aug2021)
- Nanchon Nago (July2022)

2021 - Instrumental in scheduling for recording performance at Life of Hope by “Alegba and Friends” band to participate in the year’s Immigration Heritage Week Celebration hosted by the NYC Mayor’s Office of Immigrant Affairs (15Apr2021).

2019 – Supporting actress in theater presentation of “Zabèlbòk Bèrachat” (PS6/Brooklyn, NY) (11Nov2019) – “Zabèlbòk” is fictional story orally counted by Lodyans author, Prof. Maurice Sixto.

Additional

- . Board Member of Haiti Global Village (HaitiGlobalVillage.org)
- . Voice-Over Casting and Recording (Creative Media Design)
- . Fluent: French, English, Haitian Kreyòl
- . Poet/Writer